Producers

OUR CAPABLE PRODUCERS—

Mr. Floyd Asher, Principal

Mr. Harold Kaiser, Assistant Principal

Genial, competent, and understanding qualities are those we attribute to our leaders. Mr. Floyd Asher, principal and Mr. Harold Kaiser, assistant principal. They are always ready and willing to help the student body and faculty with any school problem. They are resolute in maintaining the high standards our school has acquired through the years.

Serving in an advisory capacity of the Gary Public Schools is the Board of School Trustees. Members of the Board, appointed by the mayor every four years, are chosen because they have been recognized as prominent, hard working civic leaders who are interested in the welfare and advancement of the schools. It is their job to keep all school functions within the requirements stated in the Indiana state education laws.

Those serving on the Board at present are:
SEATED, Mr. John Davies, President; Mr. Arlie Premo, Vice-President; Rev. J. Claude Allen, Secretary; Mr. Emery Badanish, Treasurer; and Mr. Joseph Luckey, Assistant Secretary.
STANDING, Mr. Ralph Muller, Assistant Superintendent of the Gary Public Schools; Mr. Charles Lutz, Superintendent; and Mr. Dana Whitmer, Assistant Superintendent.

DIARY

Dear Sandra!

See kid here I am again! Still full of all I want to wish you all the luck in the world & happiness. First of all I would like to explain or express how fine you are. OFFICE FORCE

Locker keys, excuse slips, game tickets . . . whatever you need you're sure to receive a cheerful smile and a helping hand from the members of the office force. Each day from 8 until 5 o'clock they perform the thousand and one varied duties that make for a smoothly operated school. These people who so willingly serve us: Seated, Wanda Nawrot and Irma Minninger. Standing, Violet Vojnovich, Reubena Neff, Margaret Mackley, and Mary Vieceli.

CAFETERIA CREW

Have you ever thought about all the work that goes into the preparation of lunches so that the students of Lew Wallace may enjoy a hot meal? Our cafeteria workers are responsible for our efficiently run cafeteria. Pastries, pies, salads, and he-man foods are all prepared by the competent crew composed of Mrs. E. Goodyear, Mrs. M. Vercolio, Mrs. G. Harding, Mrs. S. Evans, and Mrs. E. Smith.

MAINTENANCE CREW

It is hard to imagine how our school would operate without the members of our able maintenance crew. They are responsible for the clean, well-lighted halls and beautiful grounds in which we take so much pride. These people have our school interests at heart: First row, Mrs. A. Single, Mrs. M. Vacarrillo, Mrs. A. Nandor, Mrs. A. Horvath, and Mrs. K. Karich. Second row, Mr. J. Owens, Mrs. M. Kulak, Mrs. E. Guest, Mrs. A. Visclosky, Mrs. C. Balucki, and Mr. D. Bohling. Mr. William Joleff was not present at the time this picture was taken.

CAST

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

To start them off on the right foot as Freshies, the class of '52 chose Dick York, president; Betty Hulus, vice-president; Theresa Ensalaco, secretary; and Joan Sloan, treasurer. The Freshman play, "Rip Van Winkle", proved an enjoyable treat. Although this was the year many of our future socialites attended their first couple dance, the biggest social shindig was the annual Freshman party.

The very successful Sophomore year starred an all male cast of Jim Evans as president; Charles Despain, vice-president; Tom Hannah, secretary; and Joel Page, treasurer. Everyone was in the right spirit, The Christmas spirit, as the Sophs wrapped up a nice profit from their sale of Christmas wrapping paper. On a snowy December night the Students danced at their "Snowflake Frolic" in the gayly decorated gym.

Upperclassmen at last! To lead them through their third year, the Juniors elected Joel Page, president; Ed Marvin, vice-president; LaVerne Kostelnik, secretary; and Joan Tomko, treasurer. The Junior class helped make the 1951 Junior-Senior prom a success by having a large number of couples attend. On the last day of school the Juniors had the best time of their lives as they wore their tattered pants, laceless shoes, and beat up hats on their unscheduled "Hobo Day".

A very popular slate of officers, Joe Capua, president; Jack Targett, vice-president; Joan Tomko, secretary; and Joel Page, treasurer, were chosen to serve during the last and best year. All the Seniors who went on the Washington trip had an educational, interesting, and fun-packed week. The social highlight of the year was the Junior-Senior prom, held on May 2, in the Crystal Ballroom. All too soon came Baccalaureate, Class Day, and Commencement. In facing the waiting world, the class of '52 holds many pleasant memories of fellow students and teachers.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Josephine Macaluso, Treasurer; Nancy Cook, Secretary; Frank Nicksic, Vice-President; and Mitch Kralis, President.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

"It won't be long now!" This thought is uppermost in the minds of the Juniors. Three years ago they started their high school career guided by their president, Steve Djakovich; vice-president, Mitch Kralis; secretary, Linda Goodwin; and treasurer, Judy High. Don Davidson, Shirley Barnes, Rosemary Moore, and Barbara Kapella proved promising Thespians of the group when the class play, "Seventeenth Summer", was presented. At the "Holly Hop" history was made when the boys actually danced with the girls.

In their Sophomore year, the class of '53 chose Richard Lasky to lead them through their second year of high school with the aid of Pat Gabriel, vice-president; Pat Ornich, secretary; and Ralph McFann, treasurer. This successful year was climaxed by the "Starlight Fantasy", their Sophomore hop.

The Junior-Senior prom replaced class parties, and the poise of an upperclassman replaced the underclassman fidgets. Yes, the class of '53 had crossed the gulf. They began their Junior year by choosing a representative group of officers: president, Mitch Kralis; vice-president, Frank Nicksic; secretary, Nancy Cook; and treasurer, Josephine Macaluso.

The class of 1953 is on its way - - - it won't be long now.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

Two seemingly short years ago, a group of new faces entered high school. Among these new faces were those of Don Strimbu, Charles Ventura, Joan Baker, and Don Doneff. At this time they were elected to lead their class as president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively. The first social event in the Frosh spotlight was the Freshman Frolic. The "greenies" danced to records in a brightly decorated gym. Next came the annual Frosh play, the enjoyable "Indian Captive". Joan Sparks and Mary Louise Koss represented Eleanore, the captive, and Bob Davis took the part of Cornplanter, the Indian. This Freshman play, as other Freshman plays, will never be forgotten.

Sophs at last, upper-lower classmen! This year, Peter Plazony, president; Dorothy Kouvelas, vice-president; Roberta Mattingly, secretary; and Sam Uzelak, treasurer were elected as leaders of the class. The Sophomore hop, "The Icicle Spree", was the next bit of entertainment that the class enjoyed. This class really went "all out" in decorations and favors to make the hop a hopping success.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS: Sandra Jackson, Treasurer;
Carolyn Smith, Secretary; James Fattore, Vice-President; and James Tarpo, President.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

The Freshman class of '52 has started an exciting high school career with their best foot forward. They began the year by electing a capable group of officers with James Tarpo, president; James Fattore, vice-president; Carolyn Smith, secretary; and Sandra Jackson, treasurer. Freshman Week was a new and exciting activity and the Freshmen thought it was a wonderful success. The next big event on the Frosh calendar was the "Snowball Jamborie", the annual Freshman dance. They had a real dance band and all the trimmings. They felt that their dance was the best of the year.

During the second semester rehearsals began. The Freshies started in on the Freshman play, "Meet Me In St. Louis." They were amazed at the large audiences and they said, "We did it!"

Yes, the Freshies have done it again. Good luck in your coming years as the Seniors of '56.

PHILOSOPHER STAFF

"Cut that article to 150 words." "Can you write a good feature for the next issue?" These are the remarks you are likely to hear if you should drop in to room 214M any time between 1:50 and 9:00 P. M.

In the back of the room you will see a table marked "Editors". There you will find five overworked, haggard characters that are almost dead from exhaustion; but work they must, for the paper must come out on time.

In another corner the exchange editor sits licking little red stamps while the circulation manager searches through her files for a subscriber's name.

The cartoonist is getting sun stroke from the high powered mimeoscope while drawing cartoons, and the reporters are all frantically counting words. Come one beautiful day (every two weeks) the PHILOSOPHER is done and the finished product is passed out to the student body and faculty.

We work and we work
The live long day
To put out the Philosopher
Without any pay
But we don't grumble
Or ever complain
For at last we've found out
Our work's not in vain
The fine finished product
Is our big reward
And another week's issue
Is triumphantly scored.

With twenty-five years of student government behind them, the Better Citizenship Organization has completed another successful year. Along with highlighting their silver anniversary at the Inaugural Ball and twenty-fifth Alumni night, they sponsored the S.O.S. Humanity Drive, Courtesy Week, and locker campaigns. Along with these activities, the B.C.O. is also responsible for College night, Freshman activity day, the selection of nominees for Honorary Colonel, improving of school and neighborhood facilities and promoting better sportsmanship.

Girls' Club

Any time of the day, or even late at night, if you look around our hallowed halls, you probably will see a member of the Girls' Club frantically running around making arrangements for the many projects sponsored each year by the Girls' Club.

The annual Chicago Suburban Girls' Club Conference was held here at Wallace on April 26. It was an honor for our school to be chosen as the hostess group for this year's meeting.

The regular project include Teachers' Teas, Freshman Week, and the Annual Girls' Club Sing.

Aides

Rendering service at anytime and anywhere is a lead part in any production. The members of the Aides are just the people to play the parts, always ready and willing to lend a helping hand. They plan the College Day program, average grades, rate students in order of their choice of vocation and plan Activity Day in June. Members are chosen on the basis of the scholastic averages and the extra curricular points that they have accumulated throughout high school.

Stage Crew

The houselights dim, the footlights come on—the curtain opens! These are but a few of the innumerable, necessary services performed by the group behind the scenes, the stage crew. The boys give up much of their spare time to help make our Auditorium department the well run department that it is.

Forum Club

As up-to-date as New York's opening night, and as modern as tomorrow's plays are the members of the Forum Class. They discuss the current day issues with the ease of elder statesmen. They participate annually in the Purdue Legislative Assembly and in recent years have played host to area schools in the Calumet Legislative Assembly.

 STANDING, Left to Right: D. Traicoff, D. Stanton.

Connie "Hildegard" Wood and Corbett "Freddie" Allen were hilariously teamed in the sparkling comedy, "We Shook the Family Tree."

For her "gang" of devoted, hard-working stagehands, Mrs. Hannsz gave a surprise Christmas party this year.

Humbly devout, and very beautiful was the annual presentation of the Christmas pageant, sponsored by the music section of the auditorium.

Annually, recitals are presented, featuring the outstanding vocalists and pianists. Doris Riggins, above, was featured this year, along with Dick York and Donna Hartsough, pianists.

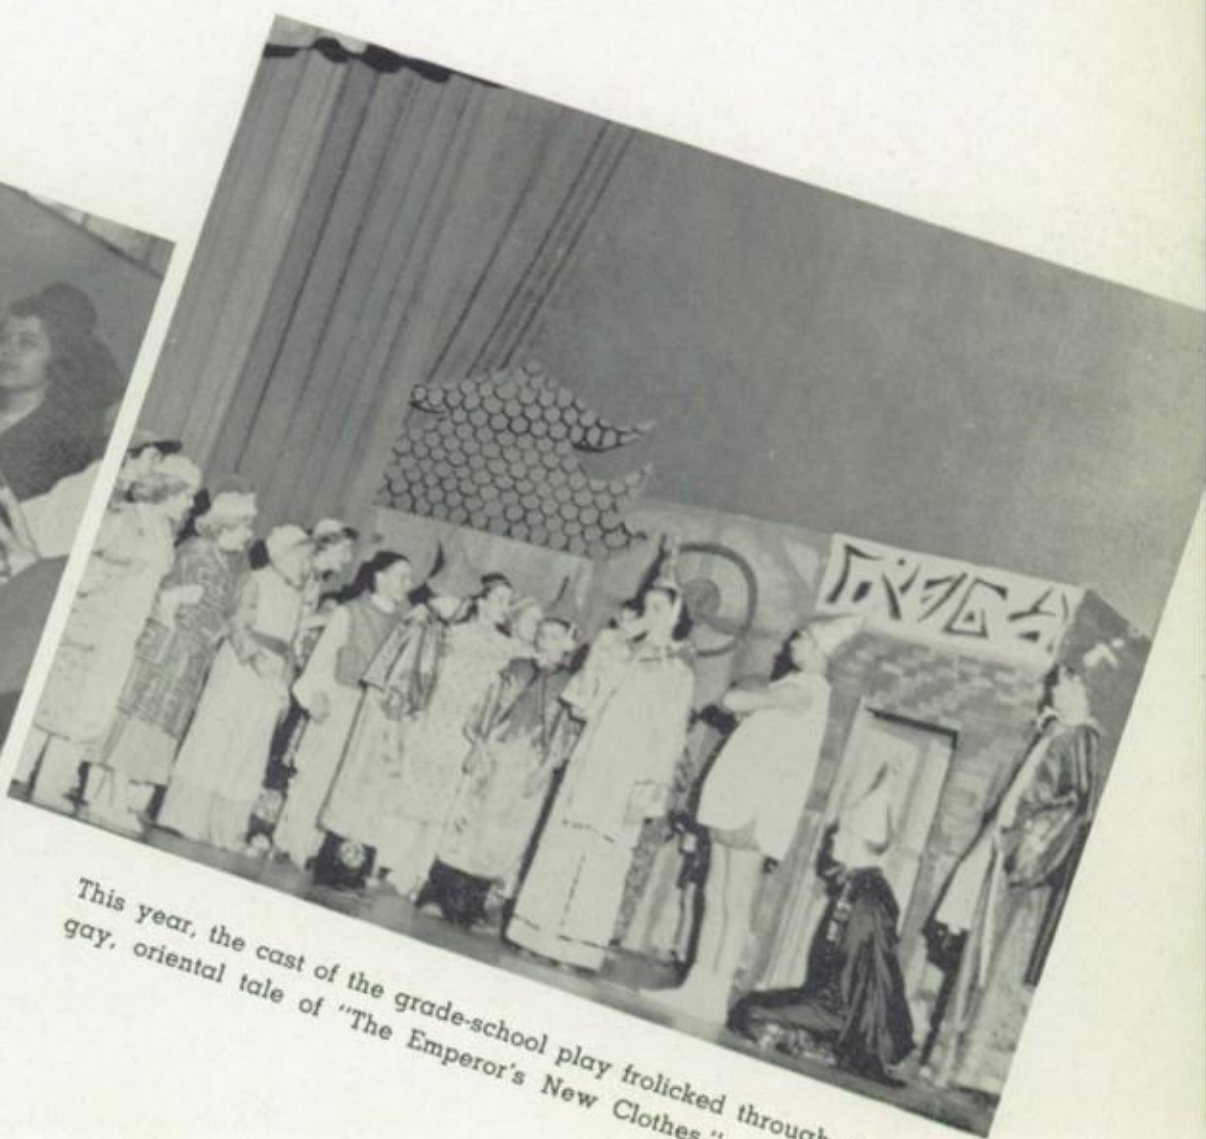

Every year the Senior Drama Class produces the sincere and inspiring Christmas tableau, "Why the Chimes Rang."

This sparkling symbol of Christmas represents the yuletide cheer that reigns throughout the school during the holiday season.

Audience participation is encouraged in every form from group singing, as above, to open, and often heated, discussion.

This year, the cast of the grade-school play frolicked through that gay, oriental tale of "The Emperor's New Clothes."

Co-Editors — Pauli Eckert and Elaine Ponzo

Dance Chairmen — Nancy Mathews and Carolyn Hall

Photographers, Mr. Katz, Jack Powell, Richard Baranko, Dick Rosebery.

Alas and alack—and, oh my aching back could well be the theme song of the Annual Staff—if there were such a song. Writing songs is not their line, but thinking up song titles to go along with the theme of the annual has been a part of the staff's musical ability. Their full time job has been the act of putting out the annual and what a hair tearing, fingernail-biting task it has been.

As editors Pauli Eckert and Elaine Ponzo poison their systems with the horse glue they are using for pasting pictures, sports editors Jim Evans and Joe Codespoti hastily search for their "stupid." (Otherwise known in some circles as the "dummy.") Tom Calenberg frantically dashes down to the dark room to see if that last minute picture is developed, while Dick Rosebery dashes up the other way to say it didn't take! Della Phillips and Bette Paterson, the copy-editors, revise copy far into the night (on Sunday's too), while Donna McColly and Tom Hannah turn black and white from checking pictures. Bill Hall and Terry Tchoukaleff did the art work "just for fun."

And last, but not least, Mr. George Katz who suffered with, for, and by us, at all hours of the day and night as we frequently called upon him for the pictures. He helped us with all our photography and to him and his staff goes all the credit for the pictures in this book.

It was the photographing, typing, checking, revising, cutting, re-writing, and editing parts of this huge production that made every single minute spent on it worth while. Here is the finished product—

FOOTBALL

The Lew Wallace football squad broke even in their eight game card during the '51 season. Switching to a new style of football this last season, a predominately senior team showed flashes of brilliance, but lacked the consistent scoring punch that wins games. They placed fifth in the conference race and second in the city chase. Highlights during the season were wins over Gary Roosevelt, 28-7, and Horace Mann, 13-6. Added honor was brought to the Hornet eleven by the nomination of Joel Page to first team center on the United Press Newspaper poll. Stan Marovich was given honorable mention at defensive end in the same poll.

RESERVE AND FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

The Lew Wallace Reserve and Freshman basketball teams enjoyed successful seasons this past year. The Reserves piled up a 10 win, 9 loss record. The yearlings were even more successful as they ended with a 14 win, 2 loss record which included three wins in the annual city frosh meet. The young Hornets defeated Horace Mann in the final game 49-17.

Cross-Country Team

FIRST ROW: B. Polston, J. Codespoti, J. Codespoti, J. Capua, F. Richter.
SECOND ROW: N. Palmateer, D. Wracker, J. Underwood, R. McFann, G. Thomae, Coach R. Polk.

CROSS-COUNTRY

Another sparkling season of cross-country has been added to the school records. This was a year which contained a fine group of hustling and spirited athletes that gave everything they had when it counted the most. Competing in one of the toughest sports in high school, the '51 harrier squad completed their season by winning 3 meets and losing 8.

TRACK

Where there's a will, there's a way. This goes for our Hornet Thinclads, for they trained very hard to win and proper training is half the battle. This season's schedule included Conference and City Indoor Meets, Goshen Relays, Conference and City Outdoor Meets, Sectionals, Regionals and State Meets.

SWIMMING

Splash!! Splash! The Wallace mermen are on their way to another swim meet. Competing in free style, back stroke, breast stroke, diving and relays keeps the fella's "in the swim". Win, lose, or draw, they're always true to the Wallace tradition of good sportsmanship.

GOLF TEAM

Trying to keep out of the rough, trying to chip for the pin, or trying to sink that long putt—that's the Hornet golfers. Our newest sport, golf, was introduced at Wallace four years ago. The golf team offers a competitive sport for the boys who like to roam the fairways.

G. A. A.

Being feminine holds no drawbacks to the athletic minded girls of the G.A.A. They participate in every kind of sport from ping-pong to football. Social aspects are also interesting diversions. Each year their annual turn-about dance, their annual banquet, and potluck are highlights of the group.

OUTER CIRCLE: B. McLeod, L. Perrotta, J. Murray, S. Jackson, B. Shirley, E. Semplinski, P. Martin, M. Antol.

INNER CIRCLE: M. Rittenhouse, P. Marconi, E. Carich, R. Lentini, C. Sarko, P. Starceovich, M. Chirco.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders this year, as the years before, led the crowds at the games with the spirit that Wallace has always enjoyed. The cheerleaders had the spectators all peppy and 'rarin' to go with our traditional yells. Wallace has had one of the best yell sections we have ever had because of the fine work of our cheerleaders. Miss A. Hannagan is their sponsor.

Dear Sandra

Everytime some one called you a Sandra in our 10:10
Sym class I never knew who they meant. There were four of us in there I think, but it was a fine class You're one of the finest girls I know and you have a fine personality. You belong to a fine gang that really goes out for you. Have as much fun as we girls in our gang did. Loads of luck always.

Sandra Blaney
